Successions Information Checklist

A succession is the transfer of title to property from the decedent (the person who died) to their heirs. Successions must be executed by an attorney and are necessary to transfer the title to property, regardless of whether the decedent died testate (with a will) or intestate (without a will).

Below is a checklist of the information needed for a succession. Please start gathering the following information and documents as soon as possible. We cannot proceed with your case until we receive the necessary documents and information.

Information

- The decedent's name, date of death, last known address, and marital status at the time of death.
- Information about all of the decedent's spouses: their name(s) and date(s) of marriage.
- The names and address of all of the decedent's children. By law, we must notify all heirs to the decedent's estate that a succession is being filed. It is very important that you provide us with this information yourself, or we cannot move forward with your case. Please know that this means that we cannot call heirs on your behalf or search for them on the internet.
- The status (alive or deceased) of all of the decedent's children.
- If any of the decedent's children are deceased, list the names and addresses of the deceased child's children. Under Louisiana successions law, a grandchild may inherit if their parent is deceased.
- The address and value of the decedent's immovable property (i.e. their house).
- The value of the decedent's movable property (i.e., their car, boat, bank account or investment accounts).
 - For vehicles, you will need to provide the Make, Model, Year and VIN Number.
 - For bank accounts and other financial accounts, you will need to provide the name of the financial institution (i.e. Chase Bank, Regions) and account number.
- Any and all information relating to the debts of the decedent, including but not limited to: mortgages, medical bills, credit card bills, etc.

Documents

- If the decedent died with a will, you will need to send a copy of the will to your attorney.
- An original version of the decedent's death certificate. It is a good idea to get multiple originals of the death certificate and keep them in your records, because you may need them for other issues relating to the estate.
